General Conditions for 2024

Fees and conditions are determined by the NELSON MANDELA UNIVERSITY Council and are subject to amendment without prior notice. The fee rules and conditions apply to all students registered with the Nelson Mandela University.

1. NELSON MANDELA UNIVERSITY CAMPUS NAMES

South Campus	Missionvale Campus
North Campus	George Campus
2 nd Avenue Campus	Ocean Science Campus

2. LIABILITY AND CONDITIONS

- 2.1 All registered students shall be liable for the prescribed fees for the relevant period and are subject to the conditions as specified in the application form.
- 2.2 To view the rules and regulations please visit the online version at www.mandela.ac.za/studentaccountsguide.
- 2.3 The contract with the Nelson Mandela University, which forms part of the Application for Admission to the Nelson Mandela University and which was signed or electronically accepted by the student and/or his/her guardian/surety, legally binds the student to pay the full account for a particular period as determined by the Nelson Mandela University.
- 2.4 The student's liability is not affected nor reduced through ignorance on the part of the student (or his/her guardian/surety) regarding the rules and regulations of the Nelson Mandela University or of the invalidity of his/her registration in terms of the said rules and regulations.
- 2.5 By signing and submitting the registration form (electronically or otherwise), the student and or his guardian/surety accepts responsibility for the payment of all prescribed fees (irrespective of whether an emailed statement is not received/read by the student).
- 2.6 A student shall not be allowed to enrol (including recess or short course programme registrations) or add/change modules before all overdue financial obligations have been met in full.
- 2.7 It is the responsibility of a student to validate his/her account sent via email for omitted module(s), timetable clashes and to verify the presentation periods of the registered modules. Such errors / omissions / clashes must be reported in writing to the Faculty Administrator before the closing date for registration changes.
- 2.8 Should a student not attend lectures and neglect to give written notice of cancellation within the stipulated cancellation periods, such a student will be held liable for payment of all tuition fees and/or residence fees for the full study period.
- 2.9 If the Nelson Mandela University Council temporarily or permanently suspends a student's privileges as a student, or temporarily or permanently suspends admission as a student, such student qualifies only for the normal cancellation credit refunds if the registration is cancelled (date of suspension).
- 2.10 A change in the degree or diploma and/or individual modules for which a student has enrolled for may result in a change in tuition fees. It is the student's responsibility to ensure that all amendments are reflected correctly on his/her account before the closing date for registration. Normal cancellation credits apply for the old qualification.
- 2.11 It is the responsibility of the student to forward account statements (sent via email or otherwise) to the person/party responsible for payment thereof if not him / herself.
- 2.12 The academic records and examination results of all students who fail to settle their accounts by the payment dates will not be released, diploma/degree certificates will not be issued and the viewing of examination scripts will not be permitted until all outstanding financial obligations have been met in full and the settlement payment reflects on the student account.
- 2.13 Outstanding accounts for previous academic periods will be forwarded to the University's external collection agents if the student is not registered for the next/following academic period.

3. DEFINITION OF TERMS

- 3.1 South African students – Students in possession of an identify document issued in the RSA.
- 3.2 International students – Students with identity documents other than that of the RSA and students with refugee identity documents issued by the RSA (Non-SADC students) are regarded as International students. For SA identity documents submitted before 1 April for first semester and 1 September for second semester registrations, the fees payable by SA students would then be applicable and the student's fees account would be adjusted accordingly.
- 3.3 SADC students - Students from a country in the South African Development Community, namely Angola, Botswana, Congo, Lesotho, Madagascar, Malawi, Mauritius, Mozambique, Namibia, Seychelles, Swaziland, Tanzania, Zambia and Zimbabwe.

- 3.4 Curriculum – Prescribed compulsory and/or elective modules for a diploma / degree divided into years, semesters, terms or trimesters.
- 3.5 Year module – Runs from January to November.
- 3.6 Semester module – A module offered over a six-month period.
- 3.7 Trimester or Term module – A module offered over a maximum of three-month period
- 3.8 Registration. The student is officially enrolled after the registration information is captured and submitted online. Manually submitted registration forms completed and signed by the student confirms registration. Modules will then reflect on the certificate of registration
- 3.9 Module identification – The module code is displayed in the reference column of the account statement and indicates the level of study.

4. ADDRESSES

- 4.1 Correspondence sent by the Nelson Mandela University will be deemed received/delivered (in case of email) by the addressee.
- 4.2 Student account statements are only e-mailed to the student’s Nelson Mandela University student e-mail address and to the alternative email address provided by the student.
- 4.3 Students are advised to make use of the alternative self-service facilities provided by the Nelson Mandela University to view their accounts. Also refer to paragraph 13 in this guide.
- 4.4 Students are responsible to update their personal information details on the Student Portal.
- 4.5 It is the responsibility of the student to make enquiries should he/she not receive an account.
- 4.6 As required by law, the Nelson Mandela University must be notified in writing within 14 days of any address changes and students should specifically indicate to which addresses the changes apply, e.g. the postal and/or account and/or study and/or next of kin addresses. These addresses can be changed online via the student portal or by email to studentbio@mandela.ac.za
- 4.7 Students must provide the Nelson Mandela University with 4 addresses and one thereof must be a physical residential address.
- 4.8 For paper-based mail from the respective Nelson Mandela University departments the required addresses are:

POSTAL address	Registration, Residence, Graduation documentation and other related correspondence
STUDY address	Exam Timetables and related correspondence
NEXT OF KIN address	Correspondence directed to guardians, parents, etc
ACCOUNT address	Student accounts and related correspondence

- 4.9 It is important that the student is informed of his/her account status to validate registration details in respect of omitted or erroneous subjects, non-payment by sponsors/employers, etc.
- 4.10 The account address refers to the student's OWN address and it is NOT the sponsor's/employer's address.
- 4.11 For recipients of a sponsorship, Nelson Mandela University requires an official confirmation letter of the sponsorship/employer before the student will be able to register.
- 4.12 Sponsor/employer address details (if applicable) are recorded separately therefore the student's account address should not be the same as that of the sponsor. The Nelson Mandela University sends two statements at a time, i.e. one to the sponsor's/employer's address and a copy statement is emailed to the student.

5. FEES PAYABLE

5.1 Application fees (International students only)

- 5.1.1 Application fees are only applicable to International students. An International student application will not be processed before the applicable fees in the table below have been paid.
- 5.1.2 Application fees are not refundable under any circumstances.
- 5.1.3 Application fees are not applicable to Nelson Mandela University international students who continue their studies consecutively.
- 5.1.4 Application fees does not form part of the student account therefore it will not reflect on the student account statement. Enquiries with regards to application fee payments should be addressed to intfees@mandela.ac.za. Bank details for the payment of international application fees indicated in paragraph 9.

APPLICATION FEES PAYABLE

2024	Online applications	No charge
	International – all applications – payable annually	R 500
2025	Online applications	No charge
	International – all applications – payable annually	R 500

5.2 Enrolment fees

- 5.2.1 Enrolment fees of R1620 will be debited to students' accounts at registration and are payable annually. For semester one qualifications the enrolment fee is payable by 30 April year qualifications by 20 June and semester 2 qualifications by 30 September.
- 5.2.2 Post-doctoral students are liable for enrolment fee payable upfront.
- 5.2.3 Enrolment fees are not refundable.
- 5.2.4 A student remains liable for the enrolment fee in the event of a cancellation. The enrolment fee then becomes payable immediately.

5.3 Down-payments

- 5.3.1 The down-payment is the first advance payment towards tuition fees and must be paid before registration can commence. Accounts in arrears must also be settled in full.
- 5.3.2 The student account must reflect a credit balance sufficient to cover the required down-payment(s) before registration is enabled.
- 5.3.3 Should a student wish to register for modules costing less than the required down-payment, the cost of the modules as well as the enrolment and/or other related fees are payable in full before registration.
- 5.3.4 Students registering for in-service/practical training modules / occasional studies need to pay the full cost thereof as well as the enrolment fee in advance. Written confirmation of such module(s) is required from Faculty Administration prior to registration for Student Accounts to calculate the exact amount payable.
- 5.3.5 International students are required to pay all fees in full upfront. A non-refundable acceptance deposit of R4000 is required to secure a place of study for international students.

- 5.4.1 The following students are exempt from paying the down-payments, provided that the outstanding debt is fully settled before registration:
- 5.4.1.1 Successful NSFAS candidates.
- 5.4.1.2 Exchange students from partner institutions with whom the International Office has formal agreements.
- 5.4.1.3 Students with approved staff subsidy.
- 5.4.1.4 Students qualifying for grants / bursaries where the Nelson Mandela University is the fund administrator.
- 5.4.1.5 Prior to registration, written confirmation of the grant or bursary is required from the faculty/department concerned. The amount should exceed the applicable required down-payment. If the amount is less than the required down-payment, the student will be expected to pay the difference before registration.
- 5.4.1.6 Sponsored students provided that the value of the sponsorship exceeds the required down payment.
- 5.4.1.7 The letter of authority must be submitted annually and must meet the requirements of the Nelson Mandela University. The sponsorship letter must:
- 5.4.1.7.1 Contain the student number.
- 5.4.1.7.2 Be on an official company letterhead.
- 5.4.1.7.3 be addressed to the Nelson Mandela University.

- 5.4.1.7.4 be signed by the employer.
- 5.4.1.7.5 specify the employer's commitments.
- 5.4.1.7.6 may NOT be subject to academic performance.
- 5.4.1.7.7 confirm sponsorship (an application for a loan or bursary is not acceptable).
- 5.4.1.7.8 indicate that the payments will be made directly to the Nelson Mandela University, not to the student (including bank loan confirmation letters).
- 5.4.1.8 e-mailed notification of sponsorship must include the confirmation letter on an official company letterhead and emailed to studentaccounts.employers@mandela.ac.za
- 5.4.1.9 if the sponsorship is for a specified amount, the amount should exceed the applicable required down-payment. If the amount is less than the required down-payment the student will be expected to make up the difference before registration will be allowed.
- 5.4.1.10 the letter of authority is subject to the approval of the Nelson Mandela University.
- 5.4.1.11 sponsorship documentation for the current registration will only be considered if the student's outstanding debt of previous years is paid in full prior to registration.
- 5.4.1.12 the signee of the sponsorship letter may not be the student or a relative.
- 5.4.1.13 the sponsorship letter is submitted before 01 October. Sponsorship letters for registration of the current academic year will not be accepted after 1 October annually.
- 5.4.1.14 International students who have applied to pay their fees as PER SEMESTER or per GUARDIAN ARRANGEMENT and have approval from the international office for such an exemption. Applications are reviewed on their individual merit and terms and conditions apply.

6. LATE ENROLMENT FEES

- 6.1 Students are required to enrol on the published registration dates.
- 6.2 Enrolment and amendments after these dates will result in penalties as specified below.
- 6.3 The full cost of the modules, enrolment fee and late enrolment fee are payable upfront for enrolments that take place after the payment due dates of the respective module(s).
- 6.4 It is the responsibility of students to validate their accounts for registration processing errors and/or omitted modules and inform their Faculty Administrator immediately.
- 6.5 No reduction in tuition fees is granted to students who are allowed to register late for a module(s) and no extension of the normal payment dates will be considered for such module(s).
- 6.6 Students should ascertain the date and time of an upcoming registration online via the University's website.
- 6.7 Late enrolment fees raised will not be reversed on the grounds of not having received academic registration information sent by the Nelson Mandela University as all information is available online.
- 6.8 Students registering for in-service/practical training modules are liable for late enrolment fee if they register outside of the formal registration period and additional modules are registered simultaneously.
- 6.9 Late enrolment fee does not apply to first year research Masters, first year Doctoral enrolments and for the re-submission of the thesis/dissertation for graduation purposes.
- 6.10 Late enrolment fee is not applicable to International Masters and Doctoral students, Study Abroad, Exchange, Internship and English Skills programme students.
- 6.11 A student remains liable for the late enrolment fee in the event of a cancellation.
- 6.12 If a late application results in a student registering after the official registration period, the student will be liable for a late enrolment fee.

2024 LATE ENROLMENT LIABILITY

BLOCK	DATE	AMOUNT
00	From 12 February 2024	R 910
02	From 25 July 2024	R 910

7. PAYMENT DATES

- 7.1 The Nelson Mandela University Council has determined the conditions for the payment of fees, therefore extension for settlement of the account cannot be granted on the grounds of not having received an account statement.
- 7.2 A student shall not be allowed to enrol or add/change modules at any stage unless the financial obligations have been met in full.
- 7.3 Accounts reflect various payment dates indicating the latest date by which the payment must reach the Nelson Mandela University. If a module's block code is changed it could in some instances result in an earlier payment date as it is determined by the block code of the module.
- 7.4 The payment dates cannot be extended under any circumstances as the Nelson Mandela University does not permit installment arrangements beyond the respective payment dates.

- 7.5 The Nelson Mandela University uses the services of external debt collectors for the collection of overdue accounts and the student will be held liable for all costs incurred.
- 7.6 Not receiving an account does not relieve students of the obligation to pay by the payment dates.
- 7.7 Refer to paragraph 10 for payment defaulting implications.
- 7.8 International students are required to pay all fees in full prior to registration.

8. PAYMENT METHODS

8.1 Guidelines and conditions

- 8.1.1 For student account payments via direct bank deposits or electronic banking, the student number (without the 's' prefix) is always required to ensure the correct allocation of payments made.
- 8.1.2 For any other payments made to the University, the surname and initials, ID number/date of birth, qualification name, student number and the purpose of the payment are required.
- 8.1.3 The Nelson Mandela University accepts no responsibility for the incorrect allocation of payments received without valid student numbers or incorrect student numbers.
- 8.1.4 It is the responsibility of the student to verify the student number and the amount paid on the issued receipt.
- 8.1.5 All payment documentation should be retained as proof of payment.
- 8.1.6 No monies should be paid to any University official other than the Nelson Mandela University cashiers at the various campuses. Students must insist on an official receipt as proof of payment.
- 8.1.7 Only bank stamped deposit slips, official electronic payment confirmations to the Nelson Mandela University's bank accounts and official Nelson Mandela University receipts issued at the official Nelson Mandela University Cashier Pay Points will be accepted as valid proof of payment.
- 8.1.8 Future dated electronic payments are not acceptable to the Nelson Mandela University.
- 8.1.9 No claim may be instituted against the Nelson Mandela University for:
payments sent by post that were not received by the Nelson Mandela University

- payments received later than the deadline dates
- payments that were misappropriated due to the payer's neglect
- payments erroneously captured by the bank official or an invalid bank account.
- 8.1.10 Direct bank payments transferred to an incorrect student account can only be re-allocated if the original proof of payment is presented to the Nelson Mandela University and the payment is confirmed on the Nelson Mandela University's bank statement.
- 8.1.11 Dye-stained notes will not be accepted by the Nelson Mandela University.
- 8.1.12 No receipts will be issued for payments made via the Nelson Mandela University's bank account.

8.2 Methods of payment:

Cash, Master and Visa Card payment at the Cashier Pay Points on the Nelson Mandela University Campuses
 Direct bank deposits
 Electronic banking
 Payment gateway via the Nelson Mandela University secured website at:
<https://paymentgateway.mandela.ac.za/>

8.2.3 Online Payments via the Nelson Mandela University website

Payments in respect of registration down-payments, student account payments, printing credits, meals, copy shop and international application fees can be made online via the secured link:
<https://paymentgateway.mandela.ac.za/>

8.2.4 Master and Visa Card Payments

- 8.2.4.1 Card transactions can only be accepted if presented by the card holder him-/herself.
- 8.2.4.2 No 'cash back' transactions are allowed on card payments.

8.2.5 Direct Bank Deposits and Electronic Banking (w.r.t. Down payments and Student account payments)

- 8.2.5.1 It is important that the student number (without the 's' prefix) is stated as the deposit reference on the deposit slip. This will allow the Nelson Mandela University to associate the payment with the student account.
- 8.2.5.2 The beneficiary must be the Nelson Mandela University.
- 8.2.5.3 For Electronic banking, kindly ensure that the bank details of the Nelson Mandela University are captured correctly and that the Nelson Mandela University is indicated as the beneficiary.
- 8.2.5.4 Electronic banking is at the payer's own risk.
- 8.2.5.5 Internet and direct bank deposit payments are only transferred to students' accounts after these payments are reflected on the Nelson Mandela University's bank statement and if accompanied by a valid student number.
- 8.2.5.6 The proof of payment for electronic payments MUST indicate that the transaction was successfully completed.
- 8.2.5.7 It remains the student's responsibility to ensure that payments reach the Nelson Mandela University timeously. Due to the 48-hour Interbank processing delay, direct bank deposits and electronic payments may take up to 2 business days to reflect on the Nelson Mandela University's bank account.
- 8.2.5.8 Exam results will only be released after the payment reflects on the student account.
 International transactions may take longer than 4 days.
 Registration is blocked until the required payment reflects on the student account.
- 8.2.5.9 If your payment is not recorded on your account after 2 days, please inform the Student Account office immediately and present proof of the payment. (studentaccounts@mandela.ac.za)
- 8.2.5.10 Retain the proof of payment in the event of an enquiry.
- 8.2.5.11 International students to send proof of payment to intfees@mandela.ac.za

9. BANKING DETAILS OF THE NELSON MANDELA UNIVERSITY

- 9.1 The banking details and instructions apply to all campuses of the Nelson Mandela University for bank deposits and electronic payments.
- 9.2 Instructions must be followed meticulously with regards to the different reference requirements for the respective types of payments to ensure the correct allocation of the payments.
- 9.3 For student account payments via direct bank deposits or electronic banking, the student number (without the 's' prefix) is always required to ensure the correct allocation of payments made. For any other payments made to the University, the surname and initials, ID number/date of birth, qualification name, student number and the purpose of the payment are required.

10. PAYMENT DEFAULTING IMPLICATIONS

- 10.1 The Nelson Mandela University applies the following policy for payments not made by the deadline dates:
- 10.1.1 Withholding of study records for any fees not paid in full by payment dates. Electronic payments or bank deposits must reflect on the student account before results will be released.
- 10.1.2 Withholding the student's examination results and/or diploma or degree certificates.
- 10.1.3 Prohibiting the viewing of exam scripts.
- 10.1.4 Prohibiting the re-registering of the student.
- 10.1.5 Prohibiting registration changes / module additions (including recess module or short course registrations).
- 10.1.6 Prohibiting the re-admittance of the student in the Nelson Mandela University's residences.
- 10.1.7 Excluding / evicting students from the Nelson Mandela University's residences.
- 10.1.8 Overdue accounts are subject to interest charges.
- 10.1.9 Instituting legal action on overdue accounts. The student will be held liable for all costs incurred. Re-registration will be prohibited until written confirmation of full settlement of the referred account is received from the collecting agent. Registration is subject to the payment of the respective upfront down-payment(s).

11. CANCELLATIONS

- 11.1 Students who wish to terminate their formal studies at the Nelson Mandela University must do so by written notification to the respective Faculty Managers.
- 11.2 Telephonic or verbal cancellations cannot be accepted.
- 11.3 Residence cancellations must be directed to the Student Housing department.
- 11.4 Students remain liable for the enrolment fee and late registration fee (where applicable) irrespective of the reason for cancellation.
- 11.5 After the termination of studies by a student, the full outstanding balance will immediately become due and payable and the Nelson Mandela University will exercise the right to take the necessary steps to recover the full outstanding balance immediately.
- 11.6 The following cancellation conditions apply:
- 11.6.1 Only written cancellations directed to and received by the faculty will be valid.
- 11.6.2 The cancellation instruction must be dated and signed or emailed by the student.
- 11.6.3 The date on which the Nelson Mandela University receives the cancellation will be deemed the official cancellation date, not the date of the cancellation letter as such.
- 11.6.4 Students will not qualify for any credit should they neglect to submit a cancellation by the stipulated deadline dates.
- 11.6.5 In the event of an emailed cancellation instruction, the receiving date is regarded as the actual cancellation date. The sender is advised to retain the proof of submission for future reference.
- 11.6.6 In the case of the English Skills course, the cancellation dates will be the same as those applicable to Semester 1 and Semester 2 listed below.
- 11.6.7 For students excluded from any course or module due to unsatisfactory academic progress or misconduct as stipulated by the Nelson Mandela University's rules and regulations, the cancellation credits listed in the table below will apply.

- 11.6.8 If the Nelson Mandela University Council temporarily or permanently suspends a student's privileges as a student, or temporarily or permanently suspends admission as a student, such student qualifies only for the normal cancellation credit refunds if the registration is cancelled (date of suspension).
- 11.6.9 Students that have misdirected themselves in respect of their course of study will only qualify for credit if the cancellation takes place within the stipulated cancellation dates.
- 11.6.10 Should a student fail to attend classes and neglect to submit a written cancellation before the deadline dates (refer to table below) the student will be liable for payment of fees for all registered modules.
- 11.6.11 International students remain liable for the enrolment fees, late enrolment fee (if applicable) as well as the International Student Administrative Fee in the event of an enrolment cancellation.
- 11.6.12 MBA, Masters and any other block release programmes with electives offered over a block period will not be liable for any fees if they cancel up to and including ONE DAY BEFORE the block commences. If they cancel on the day the block starts, they are liable for full fees of the module.
- 11.7 Special considerations for cancellation credit:
- 11.7.1 Medical unfitness. For applications for additional credit, a full report from a medical practitioner with regards to the medical condition is required. This will be taken into consideration for possible credit but it is subject to the University's final approval.
- 11.7.2 Death of the student. A certified copy of the death certificate is required.

14.2 Residence breakage deposits

- 14.2.1 All students that register for accommodation in the Nelson Mandela University residences will be liable for a breakage deposit as per the table above which is raised on the student account.
- 14.2.2 The breakage deposit will be adjusted automatically for students transferring between residences if the breakage deposit amounts differ.
- 14.2.3 The residence breakage deposit will be retained as a deposit against damage to Nelson Mandela University property. In cases where the claims/breakages exceed the deposit paid, the balance of the claim/breakages will be charged to the student's fee account.
- 14.2.4 The residence breakage deposit is refundable to non-returning students upon completion of the Application for Refund of Breakage Deposit form (obtainable from Student Housing) by the student after having permanently left the residence.
- 14.2.5 The breakages claim form must be submitted to the Residence Manager for sign off in respect of breakages. The student must present the form to Student Accounts.
- 14.2.6 On receipt of the claim form, breakages will be debited to the student deposit account (if applicable).
- 14.2.7 Refunding of the residence breakage deposit is on condition that the student account has been settled in full. No refund will be processed one month prior to any payment date except if the student account for the year is in credit.
- 14.2.8 For returning students, the previous years' residence breakage deposit is credited annually to the student account at the start of registration and no refunds will be considered before or during the formal registration process. Refunds in respect of the residence breakage deposit are on condition that the student account has been settled in full.

14.3 Down-payment exemptions

- 14.3.1 The following students are exempted from paying the residence down-payment, provided that the outstanding debt is fully settled before registration:
 - 14.3.1.1 Sponsored students where the sponsor's commitment covers the accommodation fee
 - 14.3.1.2 NSFAS successful candidates
 - 14.3.1.3 Nelson Mandela University bursary students if the award will cover tuition and residence down-payments. Prior to registration written confirmation of the grant/award amount is required from the faculty/department concerned. If the amount is less than the required down-payments, the student will be expected to make up the difference before registration.

14.4 Residence registration fees

- 14.4.1 Students staying in any of the Nelson Mandela University residences are liable for a residence registration fee of R370 per semester.
- 14.4.2 The fee is debited to the student's account per semester.
- 14.4.3 The payment date for semester 1 residence registration fees is 30 April and 30 September for semester 2.
- 14.4.4 The residence registration fee is not refundable under any circumstances.
- 14.4.5 A student remains liable for the registration fee in the event of residence cancellation.

14.5 Re-admittance residence conditions

- 14.5.1 The residence selection is subject to the academic performance of students.
- 14.5.2 Only full-time students (formal studies only) can apply.
- 14.5.3 Residence fees for semester 1 must be fully paid by 30 April
- 14.5.4 Residence fees for semester 2 must be fully paid by 30 September.
- 14.5.5 Students with outstanding semester 1 residence related fees will not be re-admitted for residence for the second semester until the first semester's debt is settled.

14.6 Fees per Residence

- 14.6.1 Upon registration, residence fees are raised per semester for the full academic period.
- 14.6.2 Residence fees cover only the academic semesters and exclude all recess periods.
- 14.6.3 Accommodation fees will be debited for the full month in which the student was registered in the residence, irrespective of the day of month the registration was processed.

14.7 Accredited Off-campus accommodation

- 14.7.1 Nelson Mandela University has officially contracted external service providers for off-campus accommodation to accommodate students that cannot be housed in on-campus accommodation. This also includes NSFAS funded students provided they comply with the selection for off-campus accredited accommodation by Student Housing and Financial Aid.
- 14.7.2 Accommodation in off-campus units is strictly an agreement between the specific landlord and the student.
- 14.7.3 The estimated rates for 2024 at the accredited bigger properties are between R30300 and R63900 per annum. At the time of publishing the rates for 2024 have not been finalized yet.
- 14.7.4 The big accredited off-campus accommodation service providers are listed on the Off-Campus Accommodation website.
- 14.7.5 There are several small off-campus facilities that have been accredited to accommodate less than 20 students each in various areas in Gqeberha and George.
- 14.7.6 The estimated monthly rentals for smaller properties vary depending on the standard of living in the respective facility, internet accessibility, whether electricity is included and the frequency of cleaning services, etc.
- 14.7.8 Off-campus accommodation service providers are liable for an accommodation levy, admin fee, wi-fi levy and an off-campus transport levy (if applicable) which is charged to the student account. These amounts are payable per month.
- 14.7.9 For further clarification on off-campus housing please contact the Off-Campus Housing office at: 041 5044736 or email to offcampusaccommodation@mandela.ac.za.
- 14.7.10 NSFAS funded students: NSFAS will be paying out only a maximum amount of approximately R45000 per year (at the time of publishing the 2024 capping amount have not been finalised yet), however, the increase as per DHET prescribed rate takes effect on the rental fee of the previous year.
If the student takes up accommodation priced higher than the maximum amount per year, it is the student's responsibility to pay the top-up difference. The top-up by the student is payable directly to the service provider.

14.8 Vacation accommodation

- 14.8.1 For students requiring vacation accommodation for e.g. re-exams, recess programmes, etc. the payments in respect of such accommodation is payable in advance in cash.
- 14.8.2 The rate is R90 per day for all self-catering residences.

14.9 New occupancies / room changes / cancellations / vacating of rooms

It is advised that room changes, new occupancies and cancellations only be done at the end of a month as residence fees are determined per month.

14.9.1 New occupancies

- 14.9.1.1 All students are advised to complete and sign the Check-In forms before room occupation.
- 14.9.1.2 Students will take full responsibility for the state and condition of the room they are about to occupy for the semester.
- 14.9.1.3 There is a different form for each residence and the forms can be requested from the respective Residence Managers.

14.9.2 Room changes

- 14.9.2.1 For room changes done during a month, students will be liable for the full cost of that month's residence fees of the vacated room as well as the full month's fees for the new room.
- 14.9.2.2 For new occupancy during a month, students will be liable for the full cost of that month's rental.

14.9.3 Cancellations

- 14.9.3.1 Students must cancel their accommodation in writing addressed to Residence Admission and Placement office (RAPO) or via e-mail to resadmissions@mandela.ac.za.
- 14.9.3.2 The cancellation notification must contain the Name, Student number, Current housing assignment, Reason for cancellation
- 14.9.3.3 Cancellations will be processed only after a student has officially withdrawn from the residence, removed the personal belongings from the room and returned the room keys to the Residence Manager.
- 14.9.3.4 All residence cancellations are subject to a two calendar months' notice period.
- 14.9.3.5 The two-calendar months' notice period will not apply in the case of the death of a student or if cancelled for medical reasons, on the condition that written recommendation of a medical practitioner with accompanying evidence is submitted.
- 14.9.3.6 In the event of students failing to notify the Residence Manager of their withdrawal, the students will remain liable for residence fees until such time that the Residence Manager is informed of the vacancy of the room.

14.9.4 Vacating of Rooms

- 14.9.4.1 The proper check-out procedure must be followed when a room is vacated at the end of the semester. Failing to follow proper procedure waives individuals' rights to appeal any/all damage charges.
- 14.9.4.2 When a student vacates a room, all original furniture must be in the room and the room should be free of litter and all personal items.
- 14.9.4.3 Students will be billed if furniture needs to be assembled and/or replaced, if extra cleaning is necessary or if personal items are removed by the University.

14.10 Residence Regulations

- 14.10.1 Contravening residence regulations may result in expulsion.
- 14.10.2 Offenders may summarily be suspended from the Nelson Mandela University and/or residence pending the holding and outcome of a formal disciplinary hearing.
- 14.10.3 Squatting and sub-letting will, under no circumstances, be permitted in residences.
- 14.10.4 No alcoholic beverages or narcotics may be brought into the residences.
- 14.10.5 No resident may bring firearms or any other dangerous articles into a residence without written permission from the Vice-Chancellor.
- 14.10.6 The Nelson Mandela University does not insure the personal property of students in residence therefore students need to arrange their own insurance cover.
- 14.10.7 Cooking in all private rooms is strictly prohibited. Cooking may only be done in designated areas in non-self-catering residences.

15. MEALS

- 15.1 The residence accommodation tariffs indicated in paragraph 14 do not include the provision of meals.
- 15.2 All students are expected to pay advance deposits for meals. Such payments should not be made via the student account, but directly into the Meal Management System account at the Nelson Mandela University Cashiers or electronically into the Nelson Mandela University's bank account (refer to paragraph 9 Nelson Mandela University's banking details, Sundry Fee payments). For card payments, direct link: <https://paymentgateway.mandela.ac.za/>
- 15.3 The costs of meals ordered by students are deducted from the credit balance of their meal accounts.
- 15.4 The estimated cost for 3 meals per day of the standard menu option for 2024 amounts to R27170 (VAT inclusive). This figure is provided as a guideline and excludes any snacks, soft drinks and tea or coffee. The figure is based on 247 academic days for 2024 (which includes weekends but excludes holidays for 2023).
- 15.5 Unused meal credits are transferred to the student's fee account at year-end.
- 15.6 The following meal costs for 2024 for the Standard Meal of the Day is applicable (VAT inclusive):

20. FAMILY REBATES ON TUITION FEES

- 20.1 Students from the same biological parents, under the age of 30 where three or more fully dependent children are concurrently registered full-time at the Nelson Mandela University for the same academic year can apply for a rebate on tuition fees (formal programs only).
- 20.2 The full prescribed tuition fees are payable by the first two children registered.
The third child registered, pays 50% of the prescribed tuition fee.
Any children registered after the third child will pay no tuition fee.
- 20.3 The rebate is only applicable to active modules, therefore module cancellations / enrolment changes or enrolment cancellations executed during the academic period will affect the allocated rebate of the beneficiary/ies.
- 20.4 The benefit of family rebate is applicable to the first and second enrolment per module only, including the registration of recess programme modules (applicable only to the students that qualify for the rebate).
- 20.5 The benefit will be limited to only one change of study direction for any student that qualifies for family rebate.
- 20.6 An Application for a Family Rebate on Tuition Fees form must be completed at the start of each academic period and must be supported by the following documentation:
ID documents of all the respective children studying at the Nelson Mandela University
ID documents of both the parents of the students
Academic records of the students (will be provided by the Nelson Mandela University).
- 20.7 The family rebate concession is not applicable to International students.
- 20.8 The University retains the right to withdraw or amend this benefit at any time after due process and with due reason.

21. PROSPECTIVE GRADUATES

- 21.1 Examination results are withheld from ALL prospective graduates with outstanding accounts. Students with outstanding accounts on the deadline date will not receive their graduation certificates at the graduation ceremony or any subsequent ceremony. Certificates will only be released after the account balance is settled.

- 21.2 In the event of degree/diploma certificates having to be mailed, an absentia fee is payable. Refer to paragraph 32.
- 21.3 Students who register for outstanding requirement modules in respect of graduation will be exempted from paying the enrolment fee and late enrolment fee provided that no other modules are registered for the current academic year.

22. ACCOUNT REFUNDS

- 22.1 Refunds can only be requested if the student account reflects a credit balance. The year-end closing date for refund requests is 06 December 2024
- 22.2 Refunds will only be approved by the Nelson Mandela University provided that no payment is in arrears.

22.3 Refund Conditions

- 22.3.1 No refunds will be processed one month prior to any payment date (29 February, 30 April, 20 June, 31 August and 30 September) except if the student account for the full year is in credit.
- 22.3.2 Payments made via the Nelson Mandela University's bank account are verified before such refunds are processed. The payment must be matched to the Nelson Mandela University's bank statement.
- 22.3.3 Sponsored students can only be refunded the down-payments made by them after payment from their sponsor is received, provided that the amount claimed does not exceed the available credit on the account.
- 22.3.4 For payments made by parties other than the student, written consent from the payer is required before the refund request can be considered.
- 22.3.5 A request for a refund must be in writing and / or signed by the applicant. A minimum of 3 days is required for processing.
- 22.3.6 Refund requests must be sent to Studentaccounts@mandela.ac.za and not to an individual staff member's email address.
- 22.3.7 No monthly refunds/payments will be administered on behalf of sponsors and parents to students or third parties.
- 22.3.8 In the event of a refund request for a non-registered student such refund will only be processed as a once-off refund in the name of the student.
- 22.3.9 Refunds to any third party are subject to the approval of the Nelson Mandela University.

22.4 EFT refunds

- 22.4.1 Only Electronic fund transfers (EFT) are available to students provided that a bank account record exists at the Nelson Mandela University for the student.

- 22.4.3 The designated 'Bank Account Record' form must be completed
- 22.4.4 The bank details must be duly completed, signed and stamped by your bank.
- 22.4.5 Certain banks have the facility to download an electronically stamped bank confirmation letter which can be emailed to studentaccounts@mandela.ac.za.
- 22.4.6 It is the student's responsibility to notify the Nelson Mandela University of any change of his/her banking details previously submitted.
- 22.4.7 Third party refunds require supporting documents.
- 22.4.8 The Nelson Mandela University is indemnified against any claim arising from the transfer of funds to the bank account as supplied by the student.
- 22.4.9 In the event of any loss suffered as a result of any details provided being incorrect, the Nelson Mandela University cannot be held liable for such a loss.

23. ACCOUNT INFORMATION

- 23.1 All account related matters to be referred ONLY to the Student Accounts section at studentaccounts@mandela.ac.za, except for the International Office that handles all International student matters. For international student account enquiries email to: intfees@mandela.ac.za
- 23.2 Statements for debit balances only and related communiqué are sent via E-mail to the student's Nelson Mandela University e-mail address and to the alternative email address provided by the student.
- 23.3 All communiqué sent will be deemed received/read by the student. Previously sent statements can be retrieved on the Student Portal under My Information, My Official Mandela University Documents, Stored Documents.
- 23.4 Students must verify transactions on their accounts to ensure that all registered modules are reflected correctly.

- 23.5 Omitted modules and account discrepancies must immediately be reported to their Faculty Administrator.
- 23.6 The Nelson Mandela University must be informed in writing within 14 days of any address or contact detail changes.
- 23.7 Students are advised to validate and update their address records at the Student Records section or via the Nelson Mandela University Student Portal or by email to studentbio@mandela.ac.za
- 23.8 Statements emailed to students by the Nelson Mandela University will be deemed to be correct unless errors are reported within a 30-day period from date of statement.
- 23.9 Nelson Mandela University Council determines the conditions for the payment of fees therefore extension of the payment date for settlement of the account cannot be granted or on the grounds of not having received a statement or for modules registered after the payment dates.
- 23.10 It is the responsibility of the student to make enquiries at the Student Accounts office and/or at studentaccounts@mandela.ac.za or request a statement should he/she not have received a statement via email within 60 days of registration.
- 23.11 Not receiving an account does not relieve students of the obligation to pay by the payment dates. Should you not receive your accounts via e-mail, use the self-service facilities (paragraph 13 in this guide) to obtain an account.
- 23.12 Student Account related enquiries can be addressed to studentaccounts@mandela.ac.za or on telephone number ☎ +27 41 504 4364.
- 23.13 Account balances quoted to students only include transactions processed up to the time of the enquiry. Payment deadline dates are not extended for late account debit entries.
- 23.14 Study materials provided by the Nelson Mandela University can only be charged to the student account if the account reflects a credit balance and approved by the payee or sponsor.
- 23.15 No charges other than the officially approved fees will be levied on the student account.
- 23.16 Compensation for lost and damaged library equipment/material and disciplinary fines are immediately payable and may be recovered from the responsible student or will be debited against his/her student account.
